Join Jim Goldsmith as he explains the Top 10 Common Mistakes to Avoid in a Residential Agreement of Sale. Students will understand how failing to understand the legal elements of a real estate transaction could adversely affect a sale.

- Failure to know what you don't know
- Failure to properly address title issues
- Failure to appreciate the time constraints imposed by the Agreement of Sale
- Failure to stay current with laws that affect residential transactions
- Failure to differentiate between items of personalty, fixtures and leased items

REGISTRATION CLOSSES AT CLASS START TIME AND
YOU MUST BE SEATED AT THAT TIME IN ORDER TO RECEIVE CREDIT FOR THE COURSE.

NOTE: At the time a GHAR member registers for a class, he assumes payment responsibility for that class. GHAR members may pay tuition (class fees) at the door. Non-members must pay at time of registration. Tuition must be paid in full prior to the start of a class. Tuition payments are refundable if 48 hour cancellation notice is given. If a student leaves after a class begins, no portion of tuition is refunded. Students must have registered, paid for class, and be seated at the advertised class start time in order to be admitted to the class. Late arrivals will not be seated, and will not be entitled to a refund. If the School finds it necessary to cancel the entire course, the full dollar amount of any payment will be promptly refunded. If the School cancels a portion of the course, the unused portion of the tuition may be credited towards a future course or refunded. No portion of the tuition will be refunded after class day begins.

In order to better accommodate your needs, please be sure to notify us in advance, if you have any disability which will require special auxiliary aids and/or services at this event. Payments to the Greater Harrisburg Association of REALTORS® are not deductible as charitable contributions for Federal Income Tax purposes; however, such payments may be deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses.
